Key wins

- Our computer training and sewing programs have been extremely popular, with a waiting list and over 100 applicants. This quarter, we successfully trained 71 candidates in practical computer skills, including CV writing, budgeting, and presentation creation.
- Despite some challenges with outdated computers and limited resources, our team remained committed to delivering quality training. We're proud to report that our latest sewing class graduated with flying colors, showcasing their new skills in a vibrant fashion show. The event marked an exciting milestone, with graduates eager to start their own businesses or explore job opportunities.
- Through our experiences, we've learned the importance of maintaining open and proactive communication with our students. By doing so, we can identify and address challenges early on, ensuring our programs continue to improve and meet the needs of our students.
